The Executive of Nebraska Will Serve BYATE OF NEBRASEA. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, LINCOLN, Sept. 6, 1892.

To the Editor of The World.

Sin: I have just returned from an extensive tour of the Pacific coast and find your letter of the 19th ult. on my desk, relative to the work of Tan Works in raising a Western "The World." Sin: I have just returned from an exten-Campaign Fund.

Your course has my hearty approval and I have this day forwarded my check for $100 for that purpose to the Omaha World-Herald. which is co-operating with you in this section. With you, I believe there are a number of Western States, formerly Republican, which are now debatable. I consider our own State of Nebraska one of these, and feel Ment that our efforts this fall will result in taking it from the Republican column.

Assuring you of my appreciation of the honor you do me in asking my co-operation, I cheerfully respond that I will do anything in my power, and only wish that I was financially able to contribute more liberally. Very respectfully yours,

JAMES E. BOYD, Governor. State Senator McMahon on Record.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8, 1892. fanager Western Democratic Campaign Fund. Sen: I congratulate you upon the success attending your popular subscription for the Western Democratic Campaign Fund. It is timely and important. While I entertain no doubt of Democratic success in New York and the other Democratic Eastern States, I still think that nothing should be left undone to place some of the doubtful States of the West nent value as ornaments to any club-house manently in the Democratic column. A popular subscription, such as you have success of any one club can have their coned, which gives to every one who desires Democratic success opportunity to contribute a sum, no matter how small, is wise and well conceived, and I am glad to see that the Democratic managers have commended it so strongly to the approval of the people. I inclose check for $20. Very sincerely yours.

M. T. McManon.

A. A. Healy's Strong Indorsement.

Manager Western Democratic Campaign Pund. Sin: I inclose check for $100 as a contribu tion towards the educational campaign in the Western States. THE WORLD is doing an excellent service in affording the people an opportunity to give large or small amounts o this great cause. It is the people's cause, and it is right and proper that the people should contribute to it according to their means. They can make no better investment go on. If the people understood the real effect of the tariff upon their welfare there would be such an uprising against it as would cause its repeal as soon as Congress could assemble to do the work. It is in my judgment form the present tariff, which is doing mor than anything else to keep down the great, struggling masses of our countrymen. os. 88-90 Gold street.

Twenty Clubs Contesting for the Ten Prizes Offered by "The World."

The presence of Mr. Cleveland in New York and the big meeting in Tammany Hall last evening are but two indications of the activity in politics, which will increase from now on to election. No doubt is entertained by oid political observers that the campaign during the coming six weeks will be one of the liveliest on record, and will probably be like the late meeting at New Orleans, short, sharp and decisive, when it is to be hoped the Republican candidate will be knocked out. Meanwhile discussion has begun in the West. Meanwhile discussion has begun in the West.

Trouble Between Warnke and C. I. Jockey Club Settled.

Lamplighter and Morello, respectively the best three and two-year-olds of the year, won two stake events at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. Both victories are worthy of special mention, from the fact that they were grand performances. In the Bridge Handicap Lamplighter carried 127 pounds, and ran a

An insane plunge on Engle Bird, however, forced the bookles to raise Morello's price in order to square their books. What induced people to plunge on Engle Bird will never be known. Probably it was the report that Morello was not hi, but any one who saw the coit warm up in his preliminary could not help but admit that he was as good as he ever was in his life.

was in his life.

Jockey Hamilton received $500 from Mr. Lorillard for his win with Lamplighter, Sims, who rode Kilkenny, was also presented with $500. The latter signed his contract with the master of Hancocas yesterday. Sims is on top of the heap in the matter of successful jockeys just now, but his experience is the same as that of other jockeys. Sims is not as good a rider as Hamilton. Good judges will admit that. He scored several lucky wins during the early part of the season, and showed one or two bits of clever riding. At once there was a universal demand for his services and he was given the choicest mounts.

It is the same with all jockeys. McLaughlin, Flypatrick, Taral, Hamilton, Garrison and others have had the same experience. They can ride to-day as well as they ever could, but when one or two jockeys receive the choice mounts they have to stand aside and are termed back numbers.

The trouble between H. Warnke and the Coney island Jockey Club officials occasioned by the withdrawal of Stonenell, after the betting had been going on some time has been amicably adjusted. Stonenell was in to carry 122 pounds. Warnke claimed he was entitled to a four-pound allowance due horses that had not won #2,000 in 1892. The Guide stated that Stonenell won the Troy Stakes at Saratoga lest year, and put the value at $2,415.

Later the officials found that the stake was only worth about $1,000 to Warnke, and an apology was tendered to the ex-switchman. The latter talks of suing for the purse, claiming that he would have won sure. This is to doubtful. Parvenue ran the seven furlongs in 1.28 under a built and could probably have beaten Stonenell.

Jockey Tom Britton says he has had exactly eleven fails from horses while in races, and in tals connection he relates a curtous coincidence. When he got his hard fall from Miss Dixle at Chicago last year he had just won seventy-one races up to that time that season.

He had just won exactly the same number this year up to the time when Semper Flusie felt with him at St. Faul a fow weeks ago. He had better quit when he wins seventy-one races next year and avoid another fail.

Mr. F. A. Ehret believed that Yorkville Belie would win the Bridge Handicap yester-day, and was present to bet on his favorite mare. She was nt and well in the morning, and Trainer Allen closed her stall so that she would be kept quiet until the time came to prepare her for her race.
